Catholic Book Publishing - Augustine On Prayer
Prayers of Augustine. St. Augustine on Prayer. According to St. Augustine, we need not pray for what we need because God already knows what we need before we even ask. Instead, we ought to pray, he suggests, to increase our desire for God, and so that we might be able to receive what He is preparing to give us.

Core Christianity | Augustine's Four Rules of Prayer
In his Confessions, St. Augustine writes that his experience taught him that God was closer to him than Augustine was to himself. Prayer also connects us to our local communities, the whole Church, and the wider communion of saints. For St. Augustine, prayer is one of the ways we become with others "one mind and one heart intent upon God" (Rule ...
