Reflex By Dick Francis

Dick Francis has been one of my favorite authors for years. I'm pleased that "Reflex" is one of his earlier novels that is now available on Kindle. The main character, Phillip Nore, is a jockey who also is skilled as a photographer. He uses those skills in a variety of ways, and for different reasons.

"Reflex" by Dick Francis is a camera lens term, so add that to the standard jockey hero, whose natural passivity is activated by honest integrity, and asserts justice without officialdom. Narrator Philip Nore 30, was abandoned "just till Saturday" by his mother Caroline, dead from heroin addiction, to be raised by a series of friends.

Dick Francis was just his pen name which he had chosen to use because it is more memorable. His father was a jockey and was also employed to manage a stable at a firm in Berkshire, England. He dropped out of school at fifteen years intending to become a jockey like his father and ended up becoming an instructor in 1938.
