Question: "What does Revelation chapter 12 mean?" Answer: In Revelation chapter 12, John sees a vision of a woman "clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars" (Revelation 12:1). Note the similarity between this description and the description that Joseph gave of his father Jacob (Israel) and his mother and their children (Genesis 37:9-11).

The Great Tribulation, the last three and a half years of the Antichrist's rule that immediately precedes the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, is sadly misunderstood by many people. They envision the Tribulation as a time of complete defeat and a terrifying time of hell on earth for all believers in the true God.

Desmond Birch's encyclopedic Trial, Tribulation and Triumph sifts out the legitimate, credible prophecies from the false and widely scattered body of teachings. The author builds this case drawing heavily on sacred scripture and only those revelations and prophesies that have been approved by the Church.

Trial, Tribulation & Triumph: Queenship

You can rejoice and thank God even for the tribulation you are passing through. Most believers are familiar with Romans 8:28, which emphasizes that God is working all things together for our good and His glory. God is using everything—whether we would call it tribulation or not—in order to mold us into the image of His Son (v. 29).
