when it was first published in 1978 and have since read it a few times...it's become one of my favorite books ever. This is an epic novel of Ashton Pelham-Martyn, an English officer, during the British Raj period in India, who falls in love with Anjuli, a half-caste Hindu princess.

The Far Pavilions by M. M. Kaye is one of the most enthralling historical novels I've read in a long time. I've always been fascinated by the world of imperial British India since the little tastes of it in Burnett's The Secret Garden and A Little Princess, and I'm only sorry I didn't discover Kaye's novel sooner. Ashton Pelham-Martyn, born in India to an English sahib, is
