The Mad And The Bad

One prime French counterpart to this bloody harvest of corpses is Jean-Patrick Manchette’s 1972 The Mad and the Bad, a novel featuring a host of ultra-violent characters, among their number: a super-wealthy architect, a thuggish hired killer and an attractive gal fresh from the mental hospital. In keeping with the author’s rat-tat-tat hard-edged cinema-like prose, below are eight bullets

The Mad and the Bad by Jean-Patrick Manchette

A clear-eyed, cold-blooded, pitch-perfect work of creative destruction.
