Victorian Literature An Overview English

Victorian literature is literature, mainly written in English, during the reign of Queen Victoria. It was preceded by Romanticism and followed by the Edwardian era. While in the preceding Romantic period, poetry had tended to dominate, the novel became the defining literary art form of the Victorian period. Charles Dickens dominated the first part of Victoria's reign and most rightly can be called "The King of Victorian Literature". His first novel, The Pickwick Papers, was published in 1836, an
